Roy Hanna Guitarist

A unique musical phenomenon in the Arab world, Roy Hanna presents the electric guitar in an entirely new form that the audience has never experienced before. He masterfully fuses the soul of authentic Oriental music with the modern sound of the electric guitar, creating his own musical school that continues and evolves the legacy of the legendary guitarist

Omar Khorshid.

At a time when the electric guitar was merely considered a background instrument within bands, Roy Hanna brought it to center stage — making it the lead instrument capable of performing complex Arabic melodies and taking on the main role in the traditional Arabic ensemble. He even performs at events and weddings as a solo act, without the need for vocals

Excellence & Style

The First to Introduce the Solo Electric Guitar to Weddings and Luxury Venues in the Arab World

Roy Hanna breaks away from traditional norms of Oriental music performance, presenting the electric guitar as a leading instrument capable of full melodic expression and emotional depth.

He possesses a highly artistic and technical style that allows him to perform iconic pieces by legendary artists such as Umm Kulthum, Abdel Halim Hafez, Mohamed Abdel Wahab, Melhem Barakat, George Wassouf, and Fairouz.

Known for his warm, respectful demeanor and sincere interaction with audiences, Roy establishes a strong emotional connection with listeners, making every performance personal and memorable.

With a striking stage presence, tall stature, and features reminiscent of fashion models, he brings an additional visual allure to his performances, enhancing the overall audience experience.

A versatile artist

Roy Hanna is a musical innovator who brings a fresh, bold approach to the electric guitar in Arabic music—placing it at the center of performance and expression. Inspired by Omar Khorshid, Roy fuses traditional Eastern sounds with modern artistry to create a forward-looking, spiritual, and deeply personal musical journey.

He's not just a guitarist, but a visionary—founding a new school that blends authenticity with innovation, aiming to leave a lasting musical and cultural legacy.

Also a skilled bouzouki player and music arranger, Roy blends Arabic heritage with modern Western electronic styles, giving classic songs a global, contemporary feel.

While rooted in Arabic music, Roy's versatility spans Spanish, Greek, and Western genres—making his performances rich, diverse, and universally appealing. His goal: to connect with all generations and cultures through the power of music.
